1000 Islands
Addiction Treatment Centre

Canadian Addiction Treatment Centres

Perched on the shore of the St. Lawrence river in Mallorytown, ON, 1000 Islands Addiction Treatment Centre provides everything clients need to recover from substance use disorder, including medically-supervised withdrawal management at our 8-bed detox centre.

The sprawling 54-bed facility is just a short drive from the U.S. border, Ottawa, Toronto and Quebec, making it well-positioned to serve clients within a considerable travelling distance.

Our certified addictions counsellors help clients manage emotional distress during their stay, and guide the development of healthy and sustainable habits that support lasting recovery.

The bucolic natural setting and recreational amenities allow clients to unplug from everyday life, setting the stage for healing in a safe and supportive environment.

Healthy meals are prepared onsite, and clients are provided everything they need to recover comfortably, including art and music-based therapy, health and wellness programming and aftercare.
